

Susan Olson

As the COO/CFO Susan provides leadership on firm finances, operations, growth, and business initiatives. She joined the firm in 2001 after spending time in the health care and finance industries.

Guided by the firm's objectives, culture, and the ethical requirements of the legal profession, Susan is responsible for all financial and operational functions of the 75+ attorney law firm. She is in the forefront of the firm's mergers and acquisitions strategies. It is Susan's duty to ensure the firm meets its financial goals and objectives and has the proper operational controls and people systems in place to achieve the firm's business objective - exceptional client service. Susan provides constant attention to the improvement of the organization to ensure financial strength and operating efficiencies of the business of law. Susan is a Certified Legal Manager.